Tutoring Experience

With over 15 years of experience, I have worked with students worldwide, guiding them through the intricacies of IB and A-Level Economics. My background in teaching economics across various international curricula has helped students develop a strong foundation in macro and microeconomic principles. Whether it's helping with exam preparation or understanding global economic trends, I provide students with the knowledge they need to succeed.

In addition to my work with IB and A-Level students, I've supported learners in AP Microeconomics and AP Macroeconomics, helping them achieve top marks. My extensive experience in international economics allows me to offer valuable insights and tailored guidance that meets each student's individual needs, ensuring they are well-prepared for both exams and real-world applications.
