Tutoring Experience

With 12 years of tutoring experience, I've worked with students across South Korea, preparing them for IB, A-Level, and AP Maths exams. My focus is on ensuring a deep understanding of mathematical concepts, from algebra to calculus, while equipping students with the skills to succeed in exams.

Additionally, I've supported students in various curriculums such as IGCSE and AP, helping them achieve top marks. Through my personalised approach, I've helped students gain confidence and excel academically, with many going on to prestigious universities worldwide.
