Tutoring Experience

Over the past seven years, I've provided one-on-one and group tutoring to students across various curricula. My focus is on helping students build strong foundations in coding and computer science, guiding them through complex programming tasks and ensuring they are well-prepared for exams.

I have worked with students from different international schools, supporting their success in both IB and IGCSE computer science courses. By focusing on real-world applications of coding and software engineering, I make learning engaging and relevant for students aspiring to enter fields like IT and software development.
