Tutoring Experience

Over the last 9 years, I have worked with students from various international backgrounds, helping them succeed in IB, A-Level, and IGCSE Maths. My students have consistently improved their grades, gaining confidence in handling challenging concepts and excelling in their final exams.

I have also supported students in GCSE Maths and helped prepare them for competitive university entrance exams. My experience with a wide range of students has allowed me to adapt my teaching to their unique needs, ensuring they understand and apply key mathematical principles effectively.
