Tutoring Experience

Since transitioning to online education, I've had the opportunity to teach students from diverse backgrounds across IB, IGCSE, and A-Level curricula. My focus has been on helping students develop a strong understanding of Global Politics and Geography, while also assisting with coursework and exam preparation. With my background in International Relations and Economics, I offer students well-rounded guidance on global issues and economic policies.

At Shiv Nadar School, I've facilitated lessons in Global Politics and Global Perspectives, ensuring that students gain both theoretical knowledge and practical insights. My approach is tailored to ensure each student's growth, whether it's mastering IB exam questions or achieving success in extended coursework.
